

Certificate

Core Public Health

Certificate

The Graduate Core Public Health Certificate is an 18-credit hour program designed to give students a strong foundation of knowledge in the five core areas of public health:

- Biostatistics
- Epidemiology
- Environmental health
- Health services administration
- Social and behavioral sciences

The fundamental knowledge and skills learned in these core courses will equip students to analyze and respond to emerging public health issues at the institutional, community, and societal levels.

MPHO 605	Introduction to Biostatistics for Public Health	3
MPHO 608	Environment and Public Health	3
MPHO 611	Social and Behavioral Sciences for Public Health	3
MPHO 614	Principles of Epidemiology	3
MPHO 620	Health Management and Systems Thinking	3
MPHO 779	Intro to Research Methods	3
Total Credit Hours		18